CAREER OBJECTIVE

It's important that you provide the hiring manager with a short explanation of why you should be hired. In two or three sentences, highlight your top skills, position expertise, and most notable professional experience that aligns with the job you are seeking. See How to Write a Powerful Resume Summary Statement for more writing tips.

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

This section is your first opportunity to highlight your skills by creating a three-bullet sentence list of your highlights that most qualify you for the job while providing critical information.

PROFESSIONAL SKILLS

Review the job posting for the skills sought by the employer. Feature skills of your own that match these key skills and are valuable in your profession. Present three of your more important skills that are aligned to the job description. Make sure you use quantifiable metrics to show your achievements related to that skills set.

Soft/Hard/Technical Skill #1

- Feature your top achievements, responsibilities or job stats here
- Use past verb tense and active language!
- Write snappy, clear blurbs about your tasks and developments.
- Include metrics whenever possible

Soft/Hard/Technical Skill #2

- Give focus to what you have accomplished and been able to do during your experience
- This section highlights your disciplines and how you've practiced your skills to the best of your abilities during internships or part-time positions.

Soft/Hard/Technical Skill #3

- This format is used for people with only a few years of experience and should fit into one page.
- This resume is great for changing careers as it is a brilliant format to showcase transferable skills.
